

A new journey, a new seeking to a deeper place
risking comfort for healing and growth
and peace
a deeper peace which stays tranquil during surface storms a deeper growth which brings stability and richer nourishment a deeper healing which uproots long-forgotten bitterness and
opens debilitating wounds to allow the gentle hand of God to create
new flesh - soft,
supple, in His image
and thereby mature new blossoms
to open
in the light of His glory
and exude a healing fragrance to all who pass by

~ Christine Hunt
February 2006